HOW YOUR WEDDING BUSINESS CAN Help Girls Choose Love on Their Own Terms

As you help your couples celebrate choosing each other you can help millions of girls around the world choose love on their own terms. VOW's vision is simple: a world where no child is ever a bride.

By joining the VOW Pro network, you join wedding professionals all over the world choosing to be part of the solution to end the international child marriage crisis. As a member, you can highlight to your potential and future clients that your business is socially conscious and that you are aligned with their values.

WHY ALIGN YOUR WEDDING BUSINESS WITH VOW?

VOW for Girls is uniquely positioned as the only nonprofit that aligns with the global wedding industry. 100% of funds raised are invested in effective yet underfunded local efforts that advance girl's rights. Research shows the power of aligning a cause with your business. Did you know? 72% of couples are likely to hire a wedding vendor knowing that a portion of their profits went to support a cause they believed in. This is especially true among younger consumers. With Gen Z and Millennials making up a large percentage of newly engaged couples, there is a clear business case to support a cause.

“I've always been passionate about children's rights and women's rights around the world and have thought for years that there is natural synergy between the wedding industry and the fight to end global child marriage. When I found VOW, I was so excited to find such an incredible organization that I could so easily fit into my business... It's rare to get to work on something that can make a real impact and be a part of creating real and lasting change.
